

Enid Mobile Meals

Volunteer With Us!

WHAT DOES RSVP ENID MOBILE MEALS DO?

Enid Mobile Meals primarily provides nutritious meals, a quick safety check and much-needed human connection to homebound seniors. RSVP Enid, in addition provides services that keep seniors healthy and safe, like Commodity Supplemental Food Program, transportation, homebound counseling, RSVP Senior Social Center, telephone buddies and more. Each program was designed to meet the needs in order to provide a whole-care program for seniors.

WHAT WILL I BE DOING WHEN I VOLUNTEER?

The most common volunteer job is delivering meals and friendly greetings to homebound seniors in Enid. Volunteers pick up meals at INTEGRIS Bass Baptist Hospital located at 600 S. Monroe St., at the south side main entrance, underneath the awning, at 11:00 am, and deliver the meals along a predetermined route directly to the homes of seniors in the Enid area. Once you're done you can deliver the meal bags back to our office or you can hold onto them and give them back to us when you deliver the next time.

HOW OFTEN WILL I BE EXPECTED TO VOLUNTEER?

We can set up a volunteer schedule that works with yours. Whether that be once a week, twice a week, once a month or as a fill-in driver, just mention your preferences when talking to our RSVP office.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO VOLUNTEER?

RSVP Enid Mobile Meals typically aim to provide volunteer opportunities that fit within a lunch break of up to an hour.

CAN I RESCHEDULE WHEN SOMETHING COMES UP?

Absolutely We understand things happen, just give us a call to let us know: 580-233-5914 and we will reach out to our fill-in drivers for help.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?
